

Russia

By Vlad & Vojta & Honza & Matyas & Rado

Slovakia compared to Russia

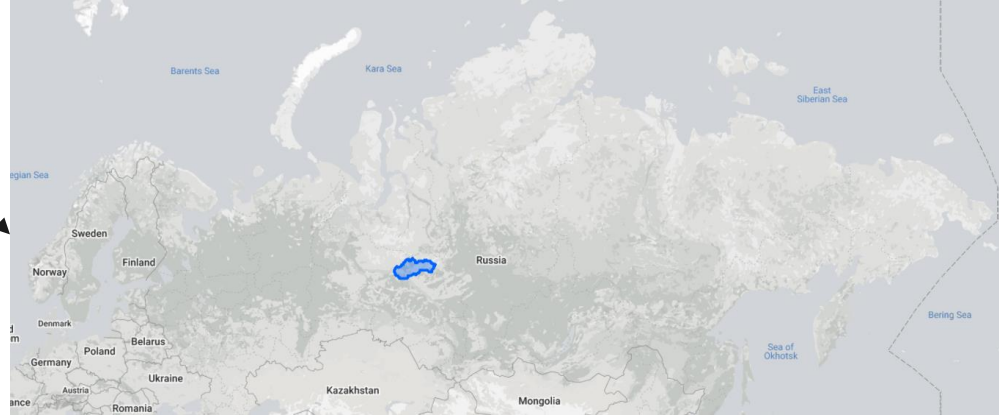

Basic facts

Capital city - Moscow

Population - 145,934,462 as of 2020

Russia is the biggest country in the world and borders 14 countries.

Russia compared to Europe

А Б В Г Д Е
Ж З И К Л М
Н О П Р С Т
У Х Ц Ч Ш Я
а б в г д е ж з и
к л м н о п р с т
у х ц ч ш я

Russian words

There are 33 letters in the Russian alphabet. We have a letter for “sh” “ch” and we have letter that make other letters “hard” and “soft”

Привет (Privet) - Hello

Здравствуйте (Zdravstvuyte) - Hello (formal)

Как дела? (Kak dela?) - How are you?

Как тебя зовут? (Kak tebia zovut?) - What's your name?

Меня зовут ... (Mena zovut...) - My name is...

Пока (Poka) - Bye

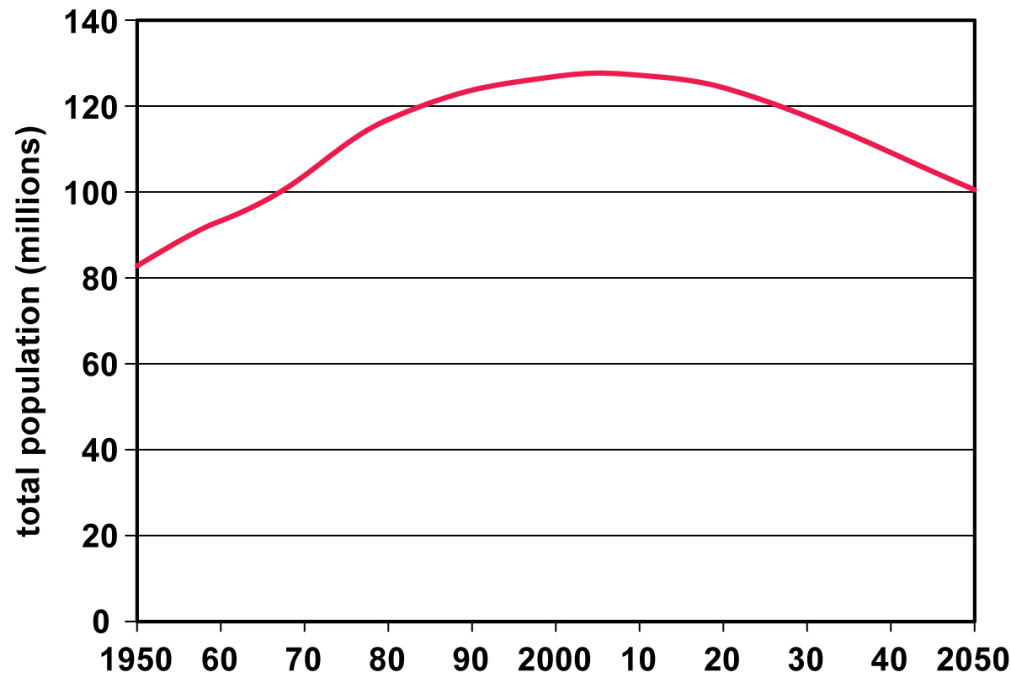

До свидания (Do Svidania) - Goodbye (formal)

Population of Russia

Population of Russia is around 146 million.

For comparison, the population of Japan is 127 million, and the population of Slovakia is 5.5 million.

Interesting facts about Russia.

- The coldest inhabited town on Earth is Oymyakon in Russia. The coldest temperature ever recorded there was -77.8°C !
- In Russia you can play golf with helicopters.
- Russia had a tsar but in 1918 they killed him and his family because of the revolution.

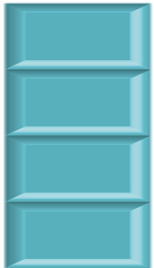

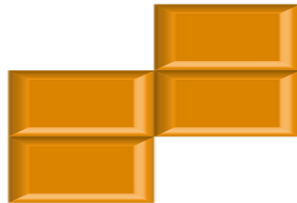

Interesting facts 2

- Moscows metro is one of the busiest metros in the world. There are 223 stations in total in Moscow.

- The game Tetris was invented in Russia.

Hermitage

- There is a museum called the Hermitage museum in St Petersburg, and it has so many exhibitions, that if you spent only 2 minutes looking at each one, it would take you 6 years to look at all of them.
- Cats work at the Hermitage museum to protect exhibitions from rats.
- St Petersburg has three times as many bridges Venice.

Metro 2

Metro 2 is the informal name [the formal name is D6] for a purported secret underground subway system.

When it was built?

It was built in 1935 and it was the first underground system.

Some famous people from Russia

1. Vladimir Putin -the president of Russia since 2012, previously from 1999 until 2008. He was also prime minister from 1999 to 2000 and again from 2008 to 2012.
2. Rasputin - Russian mystic and self-proclaimed holy man who befriended the family of Nicholas II, the last emperor of Russia.
3. Mikhail Baryshnikov - a russian-American dancer, choreographer, and actor.

History: Fight at Stalingrad

- One of the important places during WW2 is Stalingrad.
- This fight was one of the most dangerous fights in history because around 1 200 000 people died during this fight, gone missing and wounded. On the Soviet side, about 1,050,000 people died, got injured or captured.
- Fight at Stalingrad started because if the communistic countries and Germany won this fight, they will have one of the most targeted places in WW2, and that's why Germany attacked and why its so dangerous.
- After Stalin died Stalingrad was renamed to Volgograd

Important data about the battle of Stalingrad

- Started 21.8.1942
- End 2.2.1943
- Soldiers around 2
million
- Tanks around 2 000
- Artillery weapons to 25 000
- Planes around 2
300

Blini (Russian pancakes)

Traditionally they used honey, sour cream, or red caviar. But now people can use nutella, meat, mushrooms, or basically anything that goes good with it.

Pelmeni

Basically dumplings.

Made out of dough, and
have small meat balls
inside them.

Beef Stroganoff

Pasta with cream. Sometimes served with mushrooms.

Syrniki

Really sweet. You usually eat them with some cream, or jam.

Borscht

A type of soup. It has beetroot, cabbage, and tomatoes in it. That's what makes it red and unique. Usually has meat in it, and it tastes better with cream.

Here are some of the 50 legendary jewelry Fabergé eggs:

"Moscow Kremlin" is the biggest Faberge Egg

"Peter The Great" Egg

Faberge Egg "300 Anniversary of Romanov's Royal Family"

"St. George Medal"

Faberge Egg "Trans-Siberian railway"

The egg is carved from a solid piece of heliotrope jasper, covered with openwork gold ornaments, inlaid with diamonds and golden flowers. A wide gold border at the junction of the two halves of the egg is decorated with a ruby and two diamonds. The egg's button lock is crafted in the shape of a scarlet ruby. Interior decoration - green velvet.

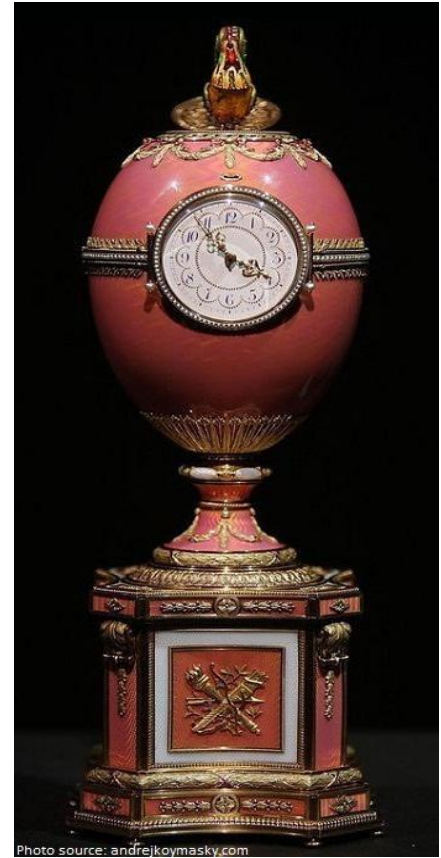

1891 - an imperial Easter egg with a model of the cruiser "Memory of Azov"

This is an egg with a built-in clock, covered with pink enamel. The specimen was auctioned off for about $ 14 million.

He also sold it afterwards to a private collection for $ 33 million!

Faberge Egg for the Rotschiolds Family

This year Easter in Russia will be on the second of May. Which egg did you like the most? 🐣

I hope you found this presentation interesting.
Thank You for your attention.
