

"The Corporate Tartlet"

A dreadful corporate tartlet
Sitting in a single portrait
Full of lies and deception
A misrepresentation of the real infection

A self injection in a section,
A section of horrors corrupting the nation,
A way of interpretation
Causing mass destruction

A bartlett, not a tartlet
A half right, half lying bite
Whom removes some teeth from a piece
Will never meet their inner peace

False news spreading faster than covid
Yet the media is still far more vivid
A third is true yet the twos are still a ruse
And you will never know when to let loose
Considering you've never hit snooze

Worrying daily, playing the death ukulele
Top 15 ways, to get condemned
Top 10 things, you never knew were deadly
And top 5 shops, coming to an end.
